- (b) Prior to issuance of the securities, the DI will receive notice of the total par value of the securities to be delivered and the amount to be charged to its funds account, in accordance with 31 CFR Part 356.
- (c) The Submitter agrees that it is responsible to the Treasury to remit full payment for all securities it is awarded in Treasury auctions, including any securities awarded on behalf of its customers. The Submitter further agrees that it is responsible to the Treasury for full payment of all such securities awarded in the event that the Treasury does not receive full payment from the DI for all such securities awarded.
- (d) The Treasury may act on information in any tender in the name of the Submitter that reasonably appears to be valid and genuine.
- (e) The DI, by executing this agreement, guarantees the authority and signature of the person signing this agreement on behalf of the Submitter.

III. Termination of Agreement

- (a) In the event that this autocharge agreement is terminated, it is the sole responsibility of the party terminating the agreement to notify the other party in writing.
- (b) This autocharge agreement will remain in effect until an authorized Bureau of the Fiscal Service or Bank official has received written notice from either of the parties that the agreement has been terminated; provided that, if securities are scheduled to be delivered under this agreement, an authorized Bureau of the Fiscal Service or Bank official must receive and acknowledge such notice in accordance with the following termination procedures:
  - (i) As to termination action by the DI, an authorized Bureau of the Fiscal Service or Bank official must receive and acknowledge the written notice by 3:00 p.m. ET on the business day prior to the issue date of the securities scheduled to be delivered,
